Deaf and Hard of Hearing Connections Week Apr 27 - 29, 2020

Media/Transportation/Participation

Parental Consent Form

In accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, the Burnaby School District requires parental consent to use children's personal information for purposes unrelated to instructional programs.

The School District and the POPDHH request your permission to use photographs and/or videotapes of your child or children participating in a school activity, and also the work they produce, such as creative writing and artwork. These photographs and/or videos may be used for external public viewing on the school or district website, in promotional materials and by news media for school and student related stories.

PERMISSIONS

I, _____ (Parent/Legal Guardian), understand that participation may involve inherent risk of physical injury while attending Deaf and Hard of Hearing Connections Week. I further acknowledge that the Provincial Outreach Program Deaf and Hard of Hearing is released from liability of and of all claims for its officers, employees and insurers resulting from or arising out of my child's/ward's participation in this activity, including transportation.

- I agree to allow photos/videos for my child as described above
- I agree to give my child permission to use travel arrangements arranged by POPDHH
- I agree to release POPDHH from liability for my child as described above
